

Could you share your experience for Japanese to understand powerful Malay women?

Purpose

To understand Malay female entrepreneurs and their gender roles and attitudes.

- Why did you choose to become an entrepreneur?
- How do you manage family-related and work-related roles?
- What do Malay cultures and Islamic values work in your business?

Research

- Title: Research on Malay Female Entrepreneurs and Gender Attitudes
- Researcher: Satoshi Adachi
- Affiliation: University of Malaya and Kindai University, Japan
- Funded by: Japan Society for the Promotion of Science

Who Malay Female Entrepreneurs (aged 20-49, married)

* Running small or medium sized company, living in KL or Selangor around KL

What One-to-One Interview (Only in English)

Where Your Convenient Place (your office, house, café and so on)

When Your Convenient Time!

(Until 28 February 2019, duration is 70-100 minutes)

Reward 50 RM

Contact s.adachi@socio.kindai.ac.jp

Please read the back of this leaflet to contact me.

Making Appointment

- Please contact me from s.adachi@socio.kindai.ac.jp or 014-713-9236 to make an appointment for interview.

Contact Anytime

- Please do not hesitate to contact me at above e-mail address if you have some inquiries about the research.

About Researcher

- Satoshi Adachi is a Visiting Associate Professor in the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences at University of Malaya and an Associate Professor in the Faculty of Applied Sociology at Kindai University, Japan. His research interests cover identity, social cohesion, and citizenship, particularly in relation to Muslim women. He has conducted interviews with over 60 Muslim women in England, 20 in Japan, and 20 in Malaysia for the past 8 years. My work includes Liberal Nationalism and Multiculturalism: Social Integration Policy and Muslims in the UK (2013, Keiso Shobo, in Japanese).

Thank you for reading this leaflet.

Let's join My Research!